

McKaig-Hatch, Inc.

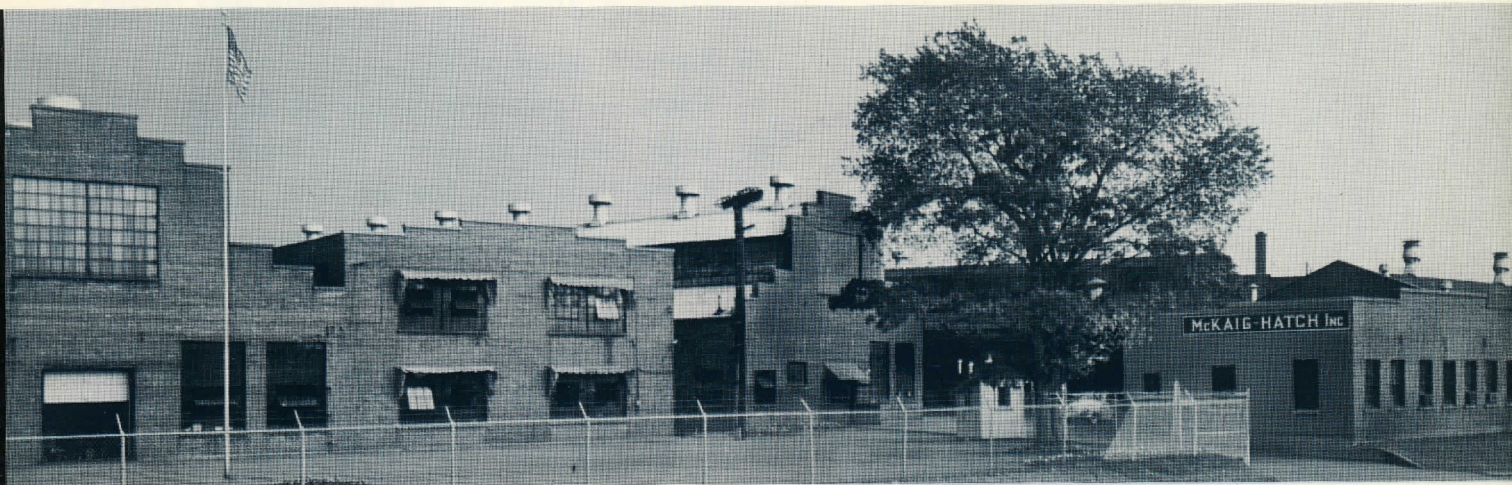

Warranty

Each McKaig-Hatch Tool is guaranteed against defects in material and workmanship.

Any tool proving defective in either respect will be replaced without charge.

For more than a generation

THE McKAIG-HATCH modern factory at Buffalo, New York, has been a prime producer of high quality drop forged hand tools for more than 40 years. The McKaig-Hatch organization of skilled technicians and craftsmen has combined the studied needs of tool users with its mass of experience and "know-how" to make them a recognized leader in the fine tool industry.

Only an organization with a reputation for good products and business policies can grow as McKaig-Hatch has grown. The modern factory and facilities shown here are the birthplace of millions of fine tools every year.

Newest developments in machinery and production methods are employed, along with highly skilled men and women, to ensure that McKaig-Hatch tools shall always uphold their established reputation for precision design, strength and durability.

McKaig-Hatch tools are built stronger to last longer.
